

Weak Over-worked Women

Who are broken down and made invalids by the drudgery of never ending household cares and duties, or by over-frequent bearing and nursing of children, and many other cares, burdens and strains which the weaker sex have to bear, are deserving of profound sympathy. But while sympathy is commendable what these unfortunate women most need is a good, honest, square-deal Restorative Tonic and Strength-giving Nerve and Regulator—one compounded and carefully adapted to act in harmony with woman's peculiar, delicate, ever sensitive organization.

Who so well fitted to select, carefully proportion the ingredients and compound a remedy for the cure of these distressing and often pain-wracking weaknesses and derangements, as the carefully and thoroughly educated and regularly graduated physician who has had a long and successful experience in treating just this class of cases.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

THIS MEDICINE IS

THE ONE REMEDY Now, and for over 40 years, sold by druggists for Woman's Peculiar Weaknesses, and Distressing Ailments, gotten up by one having all of the above qualifications.

THE ONE REMEDY which absolutely contains neither alcohol (which to most Women is rank poison) nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY which is so perfect in its composition and so good in its curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient, as they do, on its outside wrapper, verifying the same under solemn oath.

In all the above most important particulars, the "Favorite Prescription" stands absolutely alone—in a class all by itself—as woman's most reliable and trust-worthy remedy in time of sickness and distress. It is a pure glyceric extract made from American curative roots, found by long time experience most valuable in curing woman's weaknesses and derangements. The leaders in all schools of medical practice have endorsed each of its ingredients as of the best known remedies for the complicated affections for which it is recommended. These professional endorsements should count for far more than any number of lay testimonials. A booklet full of them sent free on receipt of name and address.

HOW TO COOK ONIONS

THEY NEED NOT ALWAYS BE PLAIN BOILED OR FRIED.

Formula for Stuffing Them With Sausage and Egg—Variations in Preparing Potatoes and Cauliflower.

The days are here when the average housewife who must cater for herself is put upon her mettle as a marketer.

Onions we always have with us, and they are excellent in other ways besides plain boiled or fried, as they commonly figure in the household plan. For instance, they can be stuffed, the sweet Bermuda onions being specially good for the purpose. Here is one popular formula:

Large specimens are selected and boiled until nearly tender, but not quite so. The inside is taken out, leaving just a shell. Mince the part taken out with three cooked sausages, a hard-boiled egg, two tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs, seasoning as liked, an ounce of butter, four drops of tabasco and a little minced parsley. The shells are filled with this mixture, cracker crumbs scattered over the top, a tiny bit of thin bacon is put on each, after which they are baked 30 minutes, or until agreeably soft.

Potatoes, the dependable, have the culinary virtue of being infinitely variable. For instance, when boiled and baked and fried they have become a little wearisome and the homely tubers are no longer young enough to carry a sauce gracefully, try them baked with eggs. For a moderate-sized dish in this style you will need four cold-boiled potatoes and six hard-boiled eggs, all cut in slices about a fourth of an inch thick.

Put a layer of the potatoes in the baking dish, which must be well buttered, seasoning with salt and pepper, and cover with a layer of the eggs. Repeat this, and pour over the result two cups of thin white sauce. Cover with cracker crumbs soaked in butter, and bake until brown on top.

For those to whose digestions the sturdy sausage fillings would be anathema, this more delicate method may appeal.

Cook and scoop out the vegetables as before, but stuff with a filling made of equal parts of chicken (cooked), soft stale bread crumbs, and the removed part of the onions. This should be slightly seasoned with salt and pepper, if liked, and is to be moistened with a little cream or melted butter. Sprinkle with crumbs soaked in butter and bake as described above.

In cooking cauliflower, try simmering it tender in half milk and half water, it greatly improves the flavor and appearance of the flower. Afterward the liquor, which will have boiled down in the process, for this vegetable should never be cooked with the lid on the vessel, may be thickened with butter and flour, after which one has a tasty sauce without further trouble.

CARD INDEX FOR KITCHEN

Every Housewife Will Be Glad to Have This Service for Filing Away Her Recipes.

The housewife whose kitchen is full of modern appliances will halt with delight the new kitchen card index for favorite recipes, cleaning devices and other useful information which each new cook has to be taught.

The young housewife may start with a few cards in a small index set on the kitchen dresser, then as she accumulates more and more useful information or gets better recipes for the same things she can discard and enlarge her files until she has enough to fill up one drawer or a small cabinet which may be put on a shelf in a convenient spot.

Then when she wants to clean something and is not quite sure how to do it, she opens the drawer, finds the name of the article, and there is the very latest idea, clipped perhaps from the daily paper or supplied by a friend, telling her how to do the cleaning and exactly what the results will be.

A small index may be made at home, out of a stiff shoe box, or in fact any cardboard box, divided off by strips or cardboard with a letter clearly inscribed at the top.

Between these 26 partitions, put blank cards, which may be bought at any stationer's shop, and write or typewrite on them clearly the recipe you want to remember, or paste your newspaper clippings on them in alphabetical order, and your index is complete.

Tap It Then, Scotch Recipe.

Three-quarters pound of cheese, four eggs, two ounces of butter, four slices of bread, cayenne, salt; melt the cheese with half the butter and some seasoning in a stew pan. Make four slices of toast, cut off the crusts and butter them. Poach the eggs as neatly and evenly as possible, pour over the toast the cheese, then on each slice lay an egg, putting a tiny piece of butter and a dust of cayenne and salt over each. Serve very hot, sufficient for four persons.

Use for Coffee Cans.

Many people use the tin cans which coffee comes in for holding other articles. To save time in loosening the tops buy some of the knob handles which are used on kettle covers and screw them into the center of the can cover.
